HANNAH, A GODLY MOTHER

LESSON TEXT—1 Samuel 1:1-15, 24-25, 28.
HOLDEN TEXT—My son, hear the instruction of the father, and forsake not the law of thy mother.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Hannah's Prayer Answered.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Hannah's Prayer Answered.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Can We Honor Our Parents?

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Value of a Godly Mother.

1. Hannah's Sorrow (1:1-5).
Elikaah had two wives in violation of God's law. God's promise brought him a son. Therefore, for Adam he made Eve. Hannah's sorrow was not a sorrow of loneliness, but a sorrow of being barren.

2. Hannah's Prayer (1:6-18).
Hannah had the good sense to take her troubles to the Lord. This belief should, even though the troubles result from sin.

3. Her bitterness of soul (1:10-18).
Though Elikaah loved her and sought to lighten her burden, he was unable to bring to her the needed solace.

4. Her vow (v. 11).
Hannah prayed, asking God for a son. The same Samuel means "asked of God." In connection with her asking this gift from God, she vowed to give the child back to God. Much can be expected of children born into the world under such circumstances.

5. Hannah's prayer answered (1:19-20).
The priest observing the motion of her lips and not hearing the sound of her voice concluded that she was intoxicated and demanded that she put away wine. She defended herself against this inference.

6. Blessed by Eli (v. 21, 28).
Following her explanation, she pronounced a blessing upon her, joining in the prayer that God would grant her petition.

7. Hannah gives Samuel to the Lord (v. 24-25).
For a time she cared for Samuel in the home. Always the best nurse for a child is its mother. According to her vow, at an early age she took Samuel to the sanctuary and gave him over to the charge of Eli, the priest, to minister there. We thus see in his tender years Samuel ministering before the Lord.

8. Samuel's ministry (ch. 3).
1. His call (v. 1-3).
The occasion.
From his birth Samuel was dedicated to the service of the Lord. While going and coming to the temple, the Lord spoke unto him. In Samuel we have a striking pattern of child holiness. In the Scriptures we have seen four types of experience: first, the one who is born in sin; second, the one brought up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord from infancy.

2. His obedience.
When the divine voice was discerned Samuel rendered immediate obedience. He expressed his willingness before he knew what was required. He did not inquire what was required and then let his obedience depend upon the agreeableness of the command.

3. Samuel's prophetic message (v. 13-18).
The time has now come for him to pass from the authority of Eli to that of the Lord. The first message entrusted to him was a most terrible one. He hesitated to tell it to Eli, but being pressed, he manifested true courage. It must have been a bitter experience to Eli to see Samuel recognized and himself passed by. This fearful visitation of judgment upon Eli's house was due to the sin of his sons. Eli was held responsible for not restraining them, he seems to have been a good man but lax in the discipline of his children. Parents rarely is most cruel. To tolerate evil when one has the power to restrain it is to become party to it.

4. Samuel established in the prophetic office (v. 19-22).
"And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and did not let one of his words fail to the contrary." All Israel from Dan even to Beersheba knew that Samuel was established by a prophet to the Lord. Little did Hannah know that the boy who had been given in answer to her prayer would one day become the spiritual head of the nation. Truly, he that honors God shall be honored by God.

Character: Most Important.
The great experience of the soul-winner is character. It is a false notion that we must make the water of our own level-drink to win the drinker, smite to win the smiter, and play the world's game in order to win to Christ—Richard Hobbs.

An Offering.
Mirth is the sweet wine of human life. It should be the atmosphere of all our level-drink to win the drinker, smite to win the smiter, and play the world's game in order to win to Christ—Richard Hobbs.

Rocks News

Mr. D. W. Dinkins is suffering with a sore leg, caused by poison ivy.

Miss Virginia Ranson returned to her home in Norfolk, after spending some time with relatives here.

Mrs. Ned Almond and children are visiting her parents this week.

Miss Evelyn Terrill and brother, Lloyd, after spending a week with Mrs. D. W. Dinkins have gone to Roanoke to visit relatives there.

Miss Louise Dickerson, of Chesapeake, is visiting Miss Driscoll.

Mr. Norton Meadows and wife, of Roanoke, visited Mrs. Laura Rouch recently.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ranson and family have returned home after attending the association at Rocks.

Miss Emma Ranson is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lucy Martin, of Lynchburg this week.

Donald Roach, of Roanoke, accompanied his father home last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Ranson left here for Roanoke where they expect to spend several days with Mrs. Ranson's sister, Mrs. R. E. Roach.

Oakville

We had such a good rain Friday and it was so badly needed, although it was accompanied by an awful hail storm. The hail ruined many fine crops in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Sheard left last Thursday for their home in Charleston, W. Va., after a two week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gordon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harvey Lukhardt, of Richmond, returned to her home Friday from Lynchburg, where she had been on a visit for a week; she also visited her sister, Mrs. T. J. Gardner near Oakville, Mrs. S. D. Rogers, Tom Turner and Mrs. Lukhardt motored down for one day and found the Gardner much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Phelps and daughter spent the week-end with the sister, Mrs. Lukhardt. Mr. and Mrs. Neville, will remain all this week.

It is still dry in this section and the farmers are fearful regarding their corn crop. Tobacco is doing fairly well in spite of the dry weather.

Mrs. Willie Garrette had the misfortune to lose a fine Jersey cow from eating too much clover recently.

The home of Mrs. R. L. Fulkner was a scene of gayety a short time ago when the following parties arrived: Mrs. Rosa Wilkerson and family, of Richmond, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Franklin, on Saturday last, all were invited to Mrs. Miten Brinsent's for ice cream.

Mrs. George Covington is still on the sick list.

Mrs. Watkins Brinsent and family have returned from a most enjoyable trip among relatives.

Miss Maggie M. Goodwin is expecting some of her many relatives of Richmond at an early date.

Mr. Tom Womack has returned to his place of business in New York, his vacation was not restraining them, he seems to have been a good man but lax in the discipline of his children. Parents rarely is most cruel. To tolerate evil when one has the power to restrain it is to become party to it.

Melons Solders Stole in 1898 Cost U. S. $150

Washington, D. C.—The Senate passed a bill to pay $150 to Warren G. Vest, of Tampa, Fla., for watermelon stolen by American soldiers stationed near his watermelon patch during the Spanish-American war in 1898.

Vesta claimed $1,000 damages but an official investigation resulted in a report that $150 would cover the damages.

Guernsey cows are said to be the finest milk cows in the world—producing milk that is finest-flavored and much richer.

Insist on "A" grade Guernsey Milk. It cost no more than ordinary milk and is absolutely pure and clean.

Delivered at your door every morning in the year in time for breakfast.
